

Your Honeymoon Dream – Tied With a Bow

Brides & Grooms May Now Register For Their Fantasy Honeymoon at Couples Resorts

MONTEGO BAY, JAMAICA -- Couples Resorts is on top of the latest in wedding trends – honeymoon registry. Brides and grooms-to be can now register for a honeymoon at any of Couples' four all-inclusive resorts as easily as they register for their fine china and silver.

Couples Resorts partnered with Honeymoonwishes.com to make the process streamlined and simple, allowing couples to register for their honeymoon trip with just a few easy steps. Plus, in addition to the room nights, the bride and groom can also register for extra add-ons, such as spa treatments or off-site excursions, which can be purchased by friends and family to make the honeymoon even more memorable and romantic. Extra add on options vary from a tour to the Blue Lagoon near Ocho Rios to a sunset tour on Negril Beach to breakfast in bed or a candlelight dinner.

“It’s fabulous for all parties involved...friends and family can help the newlyweds create a honeymoon memory that will last forever, while some of the burden of the cost is lifted from the couples’ shoulders,” said Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing Randy Russell. “It’s especially great for couples in which the two individuals might already be settled and not require too many new items like dishes or appliances. This gives their guests a chance to still give them something memorable and not just provide cash, which can be impersonal. It’s great for wedding, shower and engagement gifts.”

Using the honeymoon registry works just like any other wedding registry and individuals can sign up directly through a link on Couples Resorts website at www.couples.com. Wedding guests are then invited to visit the website and view the bride and groom’s registry where they can purchase an individual item or contribute toward the overall cost of the trip. There is no fee for couples to register and just a small service fee for guests making a purchase, which really is no more than the sales tax, shipping, credit card fees or gift-wrapping might have cost.
