Restaurants and bars

Whether casual or elegant, the wide array of exquisite culinary delights available at Couples Swept Away will please even the most seasoned palate. Each morning couples have the choice of an open-air full breakfast, an 'a la carte' experience overlooking the sea, or continental-style breakfast served in bed. For lunch, those who enjoy healthy and natural dishes should wander to the Sea Grape Café, which also offers a sparkling sea view. Nearby, the Cabana Grill presents Caribbean spiced favorites including Jamaican patties and jerk chicken. The Palms menu consists of a wide variety of international and local cuisine, and Patios Patio features a casual setting for enjoying everything from Mediterranean fusions to pizza.

With dinner comes an even wider variety of cuisine and atmosphere options which gives couples a diverse dining experience throughout their stay. The Palms presents an innovative array of tempting international and local fare, while Lemon Grass offers an authentic Thai dining experience under the stars, overlooking both the pool and Caribbean shoreline. Continental cuisine with a Caribbean flair is the specialty of Feathers, Negril's finest award winning gourmet restaurant. And, those looking for a more relaxed atmosphere can choose from Patios Patio, featuring an innovative combination of Caribbean and Latin flavored dishes; or Cabana Grill, which is open for salads and sandwiches until 5:00 a.m. daily.

Night or day, the eight distinct bars found at Couples Swept Away provide guests with their choice of premium brand drinks and consistent meticulous service. Each carries a unique theme, including a refreshing Swim-Up and relaxing Sundown Beach bar. And, for the health conscious guests, a reviving organic drink can be enjoyed following a work-out at the Sports Bar, located in the property's immaculate 10-acre sports and fitness complex.
